

I totally disagree about the merger of Dish Network and Direct TV, It would make Dish Network a monopoly and allow them to disrupt the economy of free enterprise and not allow competition and allow them to raise their price beyond what a consumer could afford or willing to afford. I think Dish Network is growing to large and if this merger is allowed it will cause the consumer to be stuck with a monopoly and Dish Network would be allowed to rule the Dish empire of digital Television.