

I am opposed to this merger. I have already seen what a monopoly with the cable companies has done. Prices for cable connection kept going up and up until there was a threat of competition from satellite TV. I have subscribed to DirectTV for three years and I know that if the Dish folks take over I can expect to see my subscription cost soar! Please do not approve this merger.