Please support any legislation that makes all of the best technology and all programing available to everyone. It is unfair to Americans that we should have limited or no access to these because of outdated FCC regulations.

Let the markets be free and watch what happens to satellite technology!