

I am currently a Dishnetwork subscriber. I support the merger between Echostar and Direct TV as I believe it will give me more option in my television viewing. As of this writing I cannot recieve my local stations via satelite. This seems very unfair to say the least.