

I live in Redding, Ca. and have been a dish subscriber for about four years and I would like to see the merger between Dish and Direct TV. I would be able to get my local television channels and would not need to have a outside antenna. I used to have cable but the bill kept going up and I was getting a better deal with Dish. Before that I had Primestar. Please vote in favor of the merger.