

The Honorable Michael K. Powell
Chairman
Federal Communications Commission

Dear Chairman Powell:

I am in favor of this merger. Because a few advertisers did not like the idea that I can watch New York stations instead of local ones here in Utah, I now have been forced to watch Utah locals. I chose to get New York stations because I have early hours and the New York stations did air earlier allowing me to get to bed earlier. Now to see any of my favorite shows I did watch at 8:00pm I now have to wait until 9:00pm or later thus getting less sleep or not watching my programs. What happened to my Freedom of Choice?

Sincerely,

Linda Sutton
