Dear Chairman Powell:

I am a second year student at Brigham Young University Hawaii. I was born and raised here in this state. Ever since I can remember, my parents was always and currently subscribers to Oceanic Cable, now owned by Time Warner. Here in Hawaii about 90% of the people, that owns television, subscribes to oceanic cable. The prices for oceanic cable are very high for subscribers, compared to the Mainlanders. There is a great needed for more competition here in the Islands. So that the consumer can benefit. Therefore, I promote this merger and access to local broadcasting for EchoStar-DIRECTV...

Sincerely,

Nicholas Tevaga
