

It sounds like the merger will help those of us that live in very rural areas. The only way to receive a TV signal where I live is by satellite so I will appreciate the added benefits that the merge will provide