Dear Chairman Powell:

I am retired and travel around the country in a RV. I enjoy having the ability to see my local (Dallas area) TV stations. This is especially true when I need to see the weather for the Dallas area as I enter into the last day of travel on my way home. Keeping a close eye on the weather is very important to me when traveling. The combination of the Weather channel & the Dallas channels is my best source of weather information.

Also, I hope the cost of internet access will come down to a price I can afford when the merger takes place and EchoStar offers access to the internet via the satellite system.

Sincerely,

Roy Tucker
