

I live in a very rural area--I cannot get cable or any type of broadband. I am greatly in support of the EchoStar/DirectTV merger, especially since it is the only way, in my lifetime, that affordable broadband will be available to me at my home.