

I have the utmost confidence in Echostar, but I have concerns about one company/person having control of DBS services. I support the merger because I trust Echostar. If the FCC chooses to approve this merger, I ask that the FCC require DBS operators to carry 'Local Access' channels similar to the requirement that is placed on cable television.