

Enough huge conglomerates controlling the media...vote no on this merger, it is obvious that a lack of competition is what is destroying the diversity of opinion and information in our country, and rescind any recently passed regs which allow owning of multiple stations by any one company