Dear Ms. Salas:

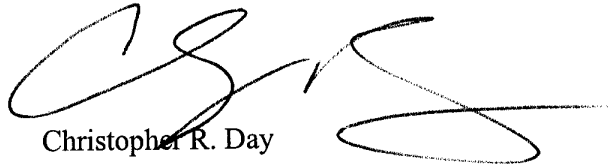

On March 1, 2001, the Commission released a Protective Order in the above-referenced proceeding for certain financial information concerning the operations of the New York Post. Appendix A, Paragraph 12 of the Protective Order provides that within two weeks after the conclusion of the proceeding "the Confidential Document and all copies of same shall be returned to the Submitting Party." Appendix A, Paragraph 12 of the Protective Order also provides that "counsel of record shall make certification of compliance herewith and shall deliver the same to counsel for the Submitting Party not more than three weeks after the conclusion of this proceeding."

Pursuant to the directive of Appendix A, Paragraph 12 of the Protective Order, attached please find a letter, dated August 1, 2001, to John C. Quale, Counsel to the Applicants, returning Petitioners' copies of the New York Post and News Corporation financial materials filed under the Protective Order. Please accept this letter as Petitioners certification of compliance in furtherance of the second directive of Appendix A, Paragraph 12 of the Protective Order.

Re: New York Post Financial Documents

Dear Mr. Quale:

Attached please find copies of the New York Post and News Corporation financial materials that were forwarded to counsel for the Petitioners in connection with Fox Television Stations, Inc.'s Application for Assignment of the Licenses and Broadcast Assets of Chris-Craft Industries, Inc. We are returning these copies to you in compliance with the terms of Appendix A, Paragraph 12 of the Commission's March 1, 2001, Protective Order adopted in connection with this proceeding.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Very truly yours,

Christopher R. Day

Counsel for the Petitioners
