CONSOLIDATED MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME

The Puerto Rican Legal Defense and Education Fund, Inc., the National Council of La Raza, League of Latin American Citizens, National Hispanic Media Coalition, NOSOTROS, Mexican American Grocers Association, National Puerto Rican Coalition, and the National Association of Hispanic Publications ("PRLDEF, et al."), through counsel and pursuant to Sections 1.45 and 1.46 of the Commission's rules, hereby request an extension of time until January 9, 2002 within which to reply to the Consolidated Opposition to Petitions to Deny and the Opposition to Petition to Deny, respectively filed by Council Tree Hispanic Broadcasters II, L.L.C. and the National Broadcasting Corporation, Inc. on December 19, 2001, in response to PRLDEF et al.'s Petition to Deny filed on December 3, 2001, in the above-captioned proceeding.

This request is made because lead petitioner PRLDEF's offices are closed the entire period between Christmas and New Year's and all counsel for PRLDEF, et al. are in the midst of a long-standing holiday travel schedule, thus restricting their ability to adequately respond to the several issues raised in the Oppositions by a filing date of January 2, 2002 (calculated upon National Broadcasting Corporation, Inc.'s service to PRLDEF, et al. via mail on December 19, 2001).

Counsel for all parties have been orally notified of this Motion.

We therefore request an extension until January 9, 2002, in which to make a consolidated reply to both Oppositions.

Respectfully Submitted,

Puerto Rican Legal Defense and Education Fund, Inc., et al.
