

The proposed restructuring of XO Communications is nothing more than 2 parties stealing a public owned company. I hope the FCC will help the shareholders.