

XO should not be allowed to do what they did. I worked for them for over 3 1/2 years and really believed what they said. I invested in them as well as pushed their business. What a scam. We the investors should be held as equals with the creditors on this one. We were lied to. Isn't that illegal as well as fraudulent?