

The FCC is encouraged to evaluate its actions regarding XO communications in light of the on-going share-holders suite.

The management must be held accountable to the share holders. Recent events/plans have not been in the share-holders intrest and management has made misleading statements regarding the ability of the company to fund its business plan leading to said suite.